

From page 59 (Personal Health Record 2003)

Before your child's 6 to 8 months health check

The following article is produced by NSW Department of Health.

	Yes	No	Unsure
Answer these questions before you visit your nurse or doctor.
Are you concerned about your baby's health?
Is your baby being offered food other than milk?
Do you have any questions about your baby's development?
Is your child's immunization up to date?
Do you and your baby enjoy being together?

	Yes	No	Unsure
Hearing
Are you concerned about your baby's hearing?
Does your baby turn to sounds or voices?
Has your baby had ear infections or ear discharge?
Does your baby have a constant cold and/or green runny nose?
Does your baby hear you and listen to your voice?

Vision

	Yes	No	Unsure
Are you concerned about your baby's vision?
Does your baby have a squint? (turned eye)?
Does your baby look at you and follow you with his/her eyes?
Does your baby look at his/her hands or objects?
Does anyone in the family have vision problems?
Does your baby move both eyes together?

Movement/activities

	Yes	No	Unsure
Does your baby sit alone?
Does your baby roll over?
Does your baby reach for an object?
Is your baby's head steady when he/she is sitting?
Does your baby push up with his/her arms when lying on his/her stomach?
Can your baby pass an object from one hand to the other?
Does your baby make mama or dada sounds?			