Does your child have a Personal Health Record?

"Does your child have a Personal Health Record?" This question is asked in a document that may be part of a health communication program. In the text, it is mentioned that children with a Personal Health Record can be better managed and treated. However, the text is not fully transcribed due to the image quality.